State of Oregon, in Salem, Ore., Aug 24, 1901
Crippled and Many Years an Invalid.
To whom these presents shall come, greeting.
About fourteen years since at nine years of age I met with an accident which caused an injury to my spine and vertebrae which resulted in the formation of humped shoulders and hip, a shortening of the waist and displacement of the internal organs, and shortening of about two inches of one limb between the knee and hip. In addition to this outward appearance of my body as above described in March 1900 I was taken with a severe attack of La Grippe from the effects of which I suffered greatly with my lungs and heart, and when in May 1900 I came to and began treatment with Dr. J. F. Cook my condition was about as follows:—Could perform no manual labor, could not get up stairs, anything from the floor, could not get about the house with difficulty, and getting up stairs was next to impossible. Could use my limbs only with difficulty and with great pain. My nervous system was badly wrecked. Had cough and severe pain on lungs and heart, and in many ways suffered almost constant and indescribable agony. In short, was at such a point as to believe I was never to see another day of life. Previously to my attack of La Grippe I was treated over a period of years by many physicians to no effective purpose.
My personal appearance at this time is straight in the back as anyone. My wasted limb restored to normal size and but little more than half an inch shorter than the other. Have free use of my limbs and can go up stairs one foot after the other with perfect ease. My waist is lengthening. Can sweep to the floor with ease. Can get about and do pretty much any and everything other well people can do. My appetite is splendid, sleep soundly and am absolutely free from pain.
Having lived in Dr. Cook's family for nearly a year I have seen much of the effect of his treatment upon others, and can truly and cheerfully recommend the Doctor and his method. The Doctor's treatment in this case was wholly confined to his patented remedies, constitutionally administered. No resort to the use of knife, mechanical appliances or other methods of treatment being employed.
about nine years.
We, the undersigned, are personally acquainted with the above subject and cheerfully subscribe to the truth of the foregoing statement.

Philippine Tariff Bill Will Pass.
Other Matters at the Capital.

Tuesday and Wednesday sessions will be devoted entirely to the Philippines tariff bill and a vote is expected on Thursday. As soon as the tariff bill is out of the way the irrigation bill will be taken up. The House will pass the war revenue reduction bill next week. The vote on it will probably be taken on Wednesday.

Famous Minstrel Dead.
CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Billy West, the famous minstrel, died here this morning of cancer and a complication of diseases. West was ill for many months and had undergone fifteen operations.
About two months ago he came to Chicago from San Francisco. While there he had been operated on, and as his condition became worse several more operations were performed. Hop Market Better.
Frank Bolter, the Brooks hop grower, who has put his 1901 crop into the Durst pool which has been sent to London, has work from Frank Felier, the representative of the growers who constitute the pool, and is informed upon investigating the situation there that the prices that were obtainable upon their arrival were 3 cents better than had been expected by the most sanguine members of the pool. Aside from this it is learned that the market was advancing at the time, and that the pool will make a good thing of their crop, and that their efforts at co-operation will prove a success.

St. Valentine's Party.
Miss Lois Coslow proved a charming hostess Friday evening at one of the pleasantest St. Valentine Day parties ever given in the Capital City. The occasion was held at the young lady's home, corner of Cottage and Mill streets, and was in honor of a young girl's club and the gentlemen acquaintances of the members.
The Coslow home was profusely decorated in hearts, suggestive of the Valentine Day season. The dining room was artistically arranged in red, innumerable attached hearts, and festooned about the room while the table decorations were artistic. In fact it was strictly a heart affair, the edibles served at the delicious luncheon being heart shaped so far as possible, while partners for supper were determined by matching pretty little heart souvenirs bearing appropriate inscriptions.
The gentlemen were made the victims of an innocent joke the contents of which was the subject of the occasion. Each was assigned to a partner previous to the party, but without their knowledge, the respective young ladies changed their places of residence for the evening with the result that no gentleman was accompanied to the party by the young lady to whom he was assigned. Inasmuch as all guests were masked, the substitutions in many instances were not revealed until after the masks had been removed and the established and home-going was carried out as originally planned.
Mrs. C. H. Jones, appropriately costumed and housed in a wigwag, cleverly impersonated the gypsy fortune teller and in bright and interesting terms foretold the future of the young people. Music and the serving of a delicious luncheon together with the large entertaining capacity of the young hostess caused the evening to pass rapidly. Several flash light pictures of the group were made by Miss Lucia Cochran.
Those enjoying the hospitality of Miss Coslow on this occasion: Miss Edna Hubbard, Miss Mae Jones, Miss Lela Heron, Miss Louise McGee, Miss Kate Jones, Miss Dot Berry, Messrs. L. E. Hooker, Ralph Glover, Wm. Evans, Jiff Garrison, Edward Thielson, James Walton and John W. Cochran.

The special venire drawn on Friday for the trial of Frank Smith was Jos. Benoit, F. B. Dayton, Ed Jory, Chas. Benson, Walt Low, D. E. Pitts, W. T. Stolz, H. W. Barr, O. H. Fav, Fred Steunhoff, Robt. Downing, and Jas. Vaughn.
